

CAPITAL AREA Immigrants' Rights COALITION

2016 Year in Review

Fighting for equal justice for all immigrants at risk of detention and deportation

Providing pro bono legal representation to more immigrants detained in the Washington, DC area than ever before.

Growth of Pro Bono Representation

Provided individual legal screenings to 706 detained children and 1,512 detained adults

Trained and mentored 153 adult detainees during 16 trainings on how to represent themselves in immigration court

Consulted with 70 Virginia public defenders and trained 254 private bar attorneys on how the intersection of criminal/immigration law can affect their clients

Launched the DMV Immigration Alliance to bring together non-profit legal service providers, law firms, and law schools in order to weave a tighter safety net around immigrants in the Washington, DC region